The word "solidarity" is a little worn and at times poorly understood, but it refers to something more than a few sporadic act of generosity. It presumes the creation of a new mindset which thinks in terms of community and the priority of the life of all over the appropriation of goods by a few.

We have joined hands with one of the best Catholic Mission responses going today. Our presenter, Sr. Joan Mumaw will represent the mission organization called Solidarity with South Sudan (SWSS). SWSS is a marvelous coalition of Religious and Lay missionaries working among the millions caught in desperate conditions because of the civil war in South Sudan. Joan will share first hand information including videos created by our missionaries on the ground. We will dialogue about our St Cloud response and how we can join in this unique mission of our Catholic Church.
